LYNCHED BY AN ANGRY MOB .- Soon after mid- | tion to have been Chagres fever. county of Rappahannock, Va., roused up from his slumbers John Fitzhugh, a brawny negro, and informed him that he must prepare for a speedy death at their hands. Despite the efforts of the jalier to prevent them the mob seized their prisoner and hurried him from his cell to the woods. A noose was arranged, and Fitzhugh was soon dangling to the limb of a big oak free. The negro's crime was an attempt to commit an outrage upon the person of a highly respectable married lady of Rappahannock county, which was only prevented by the opportune arrival of help.
